BRILES HEADS STATE ASS'N.

Association Urges Selection of Teachers in March Instead of May

On the second ballot C. W. Briles, president of the East Central State Normal school, was elected president of the Oklahoma Educational association prior to the adjournment of the tenth annual convention of that organization Saturday evening in Oklahoma City. E. N. Collette of Muskogee was his only opponent after the first ballot. Other candidates, E. S. Monroe, Muskogee; C. W. Richards, Ardmore, and W. F. Ranney, Chickasha, R. C. Giltner of Norman was elected a director.

INCURABLES CURED

Dr. Gregory is obtaining wonderful results with his new methods in stubborn cases. We note a few of them.

Case No. 1. Chronic asthma of many years' standing, patient had been the rounds, but found no cure. This case recovered fully by the use of spinal treatment which was given while the patient was under the influence of re-laxing medicine.

Case No. 2. Patient age was 11 years. Had stopped growing at 5 feet in height. After six weeks' treatment on Dr. Gregory's new motor traction table the height was increased to 5 feet and 5 inches. This is a remarkable case and demonstrates that Dr. Gregory is accomplishing what no other physician can.

Case No. 3. Patient was suffering with ovarian pain, inflammation of the liver and gall stones, an old chronic malarial infection and a very stiff spine. She was almost an invalid—past going. After four weeks' treatment, by giving anti-malarial medicine and spongy to therapy treatment, her troubles were all gone. She gained several pounds and felt and appeared to be several years younger. Her spine was again about normal and her weight was increased over 1 inch.

Case No. 4. Patient was troubled with chronic ulceration of the nasal cavities. Had taken 18 months' treatment from an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, who failed to cause the nasal ulcers to heal; the nasal condition was diagnosed to be tubercular cancer.

Under Dr. Gregory's methods, the nasal ulcers healed nicely after a few spongy to therapy treatments and the use of a special mild nasal douche.

Stomach chronic and so-called incurable cases are almost without exception, recovering under the use of Dr. Gregory's new methods. Don't Dr. Judge It. Investigate.

Resolutions adopted prior to adjournment of the business meeting urged:

1. Removal of the law limiting school appropriations.

2. Minimum term of seven months in every school in the state, county and state to share in additional expense if less is not sufficient.

3. Restricted independent districts making the same time in the same time as consolidated districts.

4. Election of teachers in March instead of May.

5. Campaign against illiteracy.

6. Compulsory education of all inmates of penal institutions.

7. Investigation of subject of teacher pension.

NEW BOSS IS ON FORD JOB

W. B. Culbertson, Oklahoma City Man, Assumes the Place of Mr. Waller

A LL trouble at the Ford assembly plant, being constructed on West Main street by the Hodges Construction company of St. Paul, has been quieted now that the job is strictly a union one from top to bottom, and further disturbance is an extreme possibility, for last Tuesday W. B. Culbertson of Oklahoma City was appointed by President Hodges of the construction company, to take the place of Superintendent Waller, under whose administration of the job thirty union carpenters walked from the building on November 1. Mr. Culbertson is one of the best known construction men in the southwest, having worked on the Lee-Herrick building, the Oklahoma Street Railway company's power plant and other like structures.

What is rumored to have been the direct cause of Waller's dismissal or transfer from the Oklahoma City job was the manner in which he received Ollie S. Wilson and Homer Adrean, members of a committee appointed by the labor council to invite the superintendent to attend a conference shortly after the strike to see whether there were no way in which the differences between the contractors and union might be patched up. Waller, according to Wilson and Adrean, declared that he needed nothing to do with them.

FALSE CONSERVATION

TAFT, Calif., Nov. 29.—Hundreds of men connected with the oil industry went to church Sunday to hear a special sermon preached by the Rev. Luther A. Rice on the subject of "false conservation."

The sermon dealt with the order of former President Taft withdrawing certain oil lands and the effect on the California oil industry. The withdrawal order, said the preacher, had worked grievous hardship to oil operators.

MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL SAYS

Taniac, the Master Medicine, Has Greatly Benefited Him

Many good people of Oklahoma City continue to testify as to the merits of Taniac, the Master Medicine. "We are more than pleased," said the Taniac Man, "to know that so many prominent citizens of Oklahoma City and vicinity are being relieved of their ailments by the use of Taniac. We know our Master Medicine would do for Oklahomans what it has done and is doing for the people of the East and Middle Western States. You can find in many of the best newspapers over the entire country statements from people in all walks of life telling of the wonderful relief they have gotten from stomach, liver, kidney, bowel and catarrhal troubles.

Rev. J. A. Baldwin of No. 118 W. B. Ave., Capitol Hill, Oklahoma City, said: "I am seventy-one years old and have suffered for a long time from catarrh of the throat, indigestion and constipation. I am now on my second bottle of Taniac and am delighted with the results already obtained."

"I know that Taniac has already greatly benefited me my catarrh, my indigestion is much improved and I am relieved of constipation."

"I take pleasure in recommending Taniac to all suffering as I did."

Taniac continues to be sold by R. M. Scott, 227 W. Main St.; Scott-Alcorn Drug Co., 9-11 N. Harvey St., Oklahoma City.

PAVING WAY TO BACKDOWN

Indications That State Administration May Give Up
2-Cent Fight

THE BARRETT INTERVIEW

News Correspondent Reiterates Authenticity of Unguarded Expressions

AMONG the politicians in the state capital and among the state house group, there is little enjoyment of the surface situation of State Senator Barrett of Bartlesville, who also is serving as a member of the Democratic state senate. The switch is maintained by a cross-current movement against the senator's views and policies. In connection with the recent interview of the senator by George McQuaid, Oklahoma correspondent for the Dallas News, A. Thompson, City newspaper editor, got an interview with Barrett, in which Barrett said he denied the interview, according to the Dallas publication.

Barrett was asked by McQuaid, as starting substitution, that the state would condemn the 2-cent rate case, if necessary, and that further appropriations be utilized to build the prosecution of the ballot issue.

In the Dallas News of November 25 McQuaid had another signed story that "planted down" the original interview in a manner which Barrett will find it difficult to evade the responsibility. To quote:

"Confidential correspondence carried in political and social circles following the frank and objective interview with Senator Barrett by Barrett's editor in chief, Thompson, in this city, has disclosed his strong personal aversion to hostility to the administration. Committee, which has yielded of speech in the Senate last winter and declared against further appropriations for federal roads. In this interview, Barrett has expressed the intention of getting up good money to vote as a candidate in a losing game and said he opposed the tax very."

McQuaid, who is believed to be held in higher favor by the governor than any other newspaper man handling state news, gives this further significant and seemingly ex cathethic expression:

"The often expressed determination of Governor Williams to employ the great influence of the high office in the interests of the public justice, and to the end that the affairs of the state be administered with economy and efficiency, is a guarantee alike that the executive and the legislature—in the extent that the executive shall have influence with it—will work for a wise determination. The state cases either for or out of court. The attitude of the governor is also a guarantee that the legislature will not be asked to make any wasteful appropriation for further defense of the rate case, but that the sum to be appropriated will be limited to the probable actual necessities of the situation."

"If Governor Williams shall reach the conclusion that the state would be treated fairly by a compromise of the case, and the interests of the state are well served thereby, he will do so. Conceded, there is no doubt but that he would use his influence to the end that such a compromise be made. He has no fear of public censure and is even slightly averse to the voice of public opinion."

PIERS IN DANGER

Seattle Water Front Is Threatened By Writer of Anonymous Letter—Part of Wharf Burned October 28

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 29.—Federal authorities, it became known Monday, are investigating an anonymous threat to destroy a portion of the Seattle water front. A letter sent to the lessees of pier 14 which was burned October 28, warned them that pier 5 which, like pier 14, is used for handling wharfs for Russia, and a city fireboat had been marked for destruction.

MAY OPEN LAND

EL REHO, Nov. 29.—Representative Scott Ferris, who leaves for Washington soon, will push a proposition for the government to remove the remount station at old Fort Reno to Fort Sill, near Lawton. The proposition is favored here, because it would open up considerable tract of land adjacent to this city.

DO IT NOW, IS LONDON POST'S PEACE ADVICE

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Belief that the time has arrived for the allies to begin to define clear and definite terms of peace is expressed by the Post in an editorial on the ground that there then will be less chance of losing in negotiations what has been gained on the sea and on the field.

BAPTISTS TO MEET

TULSA, Nov. 29.—Delegates already are arriving here to attend the annual Baptist state convention which opens here Tuesday. It is expected that 600 delegates will be in attendance. The meeting will cover two days. Tuesday, Rev. T. M. Hunter of Oklahoma City will deliver an address on "His Intellectual Life."

WETUMKA SALES

WETUMKA, Nov. 29.—Sales of cotton at this point passed the $300,000 mark in the week just passed. This is $25,000 in excess to the same period last year and the crop is 3,000 bales short.

MINE BRINGS $125,000

MIAMI, Nov. 29.—St. Louis capitalists, for a consideration of $125,000, have purchased the Blue Bird mine in this field, the lease covering 80 acres and the mill having a capacity of 250 tons.

VELVET is matured by Nature's own method—patient ageing for not less than two years. The Liggett & Myers "Tobacco Laws" see to that.

In no other way could VELVET acquire its famous smoothness, in addition to the fragrant, cool, slow-burning qualities natural to Kentucky Burley Leaf—the supreme pipe tobacco.

No artificial curing can equal Nature's way.

"For its superior quality," VELVET was awarded the Grand Prize at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.
